College Notes—(Continued from page 14)

Five of our students together with Professor Witter spent Sunday with the Fairhaven church and shared with them in a Love feast in the evening. Others both students and professors expected to attend but inclement weather hindered.

Miss Gill student in the Normal department spent Sunday with her parents in the country.

Wallace Garber, graduate of the class of 1900 visited at the college over Sunday. Wallace has many friends at the College who wish him every degree of success.

All students have the opportunity to take a course in free-hand and perspective drawing without extra charge. The class met last Tuesday and most of the students were in attendance. The professor in charge is an artist of no mean ability.

New students are coming in each week. Are there not many in our own church who ought to be with us during the winter and spring terms? There are. Why not arrange then to be with us; We need you and you need what the College will do for you.

Brother Lichty of the Theological department has accepted the pastorate of the Fairhaven church and begun his work last Sunday. May our prayers ascend for him.

Brother Beechler spent Sunday with the Miamisburg church of which he is pastor.

These two men preach and carry a college course, and both are doing good work. What they are doing other young men could do. Today the man who wants an education may have it. The writer would not be afraid to start to College with not a cent in pocket. 'Where there is a will there is a way.'
